Dear Bob:

This is in response to your letter of 29 August concerning the annual Reserve Officers' Seminar and confirming the telephone call to Lt. Colonel Russell B. Johnson on this subject. We are happy to make available [redacted] to speak at 9:30 on Friday, 5 October, on the subject of "Scope of National Intelligence". [redacted] is a member of the Board of National Estimates as you know. Mr. Kirkpatrick will speak that afternoon from 1300 to 1400 on CIA--Scope and Mission.

SUBJECT:

Annual Reserve Officers Seminar

TO: Lt General Marshall S. Carter
Deputy Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington 25, D.C.

Dear General Carter

The third annual Seminar for Reserve Intelligence Officers assigned to USAF Headquarters will be conducted on 5 October 1962, in room 4C-1052, The Pentagon. The purpose of this series of conferences is to keep our Reservists abreast of the latest developments in the Intelligence profession and thus promote a high state of readiness of our Reserve Forces. We believe the 1961 Seminar very successfully met this objective (see the attached program for the 1961 Seminar).

This year, emphasis is being placed upon changes in the National Intelligence Structure and the role each key component plays in that Structure. In carrying out this project, we plan to bring in experts from various Intelligence organizations of the Federal Government to brief our Reserve Group. All officers attending this year's Seminar will be cleared for access to TOP SECRET information. Approximately 80 to 90 Reservists, ranking from first lieutenant to brigadier general are expected to be in attendance, with the bulk of the Group represented by field grades.

The program we envisage would be seriously deficient without a briefing on the scope of National Intelligence and the role of CIA. To this end, Colonel Aldo Raffa, a representative of our Reserve Training Group, has made informal contact with Mr. Ray S. Cline, and with the office of Mr. Lyman B. Kirkpatrick, concerning their availability to speak before our Reserve Group. The former indicated his willingness to speak before our Group; the latter, Colonel Raffa was unable to contact at the time.

In any event, we would greatly appreciate it if you would designate two qualified speakers, preferably the two experts recommended by Colonel Raffa, to address our Seminar at the time indicated on the attached tentative schedule for the 1962 session (Atch 2).

If you find this proposal acceptable, may I suggest that your designees contact Lt Colonel Russell B. Johnson, AFCIN's Project Officer, on Pentagon ext 78044 at an early date. He is in charge of preliminary arrangements incident to the Seminar.
